SUMMIT, NEW JERSEY: Incorporated in 1899, the Town of Summit is one of the most widely-known and most highly considered communities in Union County, NJ. Summit is home to people of many social, economic and ethnic backgrounds who have found Summit a stimulating, heterogeneous, suburban environment. Travel to New York City makes Summit highly desirable. Two train lines funnel into Summit: Midtown Direct moving directly into Penn Station located in Midtown Manhattan and downtown Wall Street. Newark International Airport is a 15 minute car ride away. Summit Public Schools are known for their excellence with small class sizes and only two students per computer. As evidence by its thriving downtown, Summit's shopping district hosts an assortment of unique owner-operated businesses. All this and more make Summit an excellent town to which to relocate or visit.
